

Lucille Vanderburg

December 17, 2010

Lucille Vanderburg, 87, of Hot Springs passed away peacefully with family at her side on, December 17, 2010.

She was born in Hope, Arkansas to Benjamin and Zora Johnson, was a charter member of Hot Springs Baptist Church, a homemaker, loving wife, mother and grandmother and will be missed dearly, but forever remembered.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, Palmer Vanderburg and son Morgan Vanderburg and eight siblings.

Loving survivors include her two daughters, Traca (Jim) Jones of Hot Springs, Suzanne Ragel of Kansas City, MO and daughter-in-law Cindy Vanderburg of Hot Springs, grandsons, Greg & Drew Jones and Kyle Vanderburg of Hot Springs, Scott & Sean Bailey of Kansas City, MO. and seven great grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Jim Jones, Greg Jones, Drew Jones, Scott Bailey, Sean Bailey, and Kyle Vanderburg.

Graveside service 2:00 P.M. Tuesday, December 21, Memorial Gardens Cemetery with Reverend Gerald Taylor officiating.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Hot Springs Baptist Church. 144 Weston Road, Hot Springs, Arkansas 71913 or charity of choice

Tribute Wall

JR

“ Hello, Traca, I was sad to hear of your mother's passing. I enjoyed knowing her as we were growing up at Second Baptist Church. She always had such a sweet smile. Now she's joining other dear Second Baptist and Hot Springs Baptist friends in Heaven that have gone there before her, including my mother and dad. I'm keeping you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. Sincerely, Janie Reece Russell

Janie Reece Russell - December 25, 2010 at 11:19 AM