“Sad to say goodbye to a cherished friend, whose vivacious spirit and adventurous zest for life touched everyone fortunate enough to know her. Her infectious laughter, boundless energy, and warm, lovely spirit was a joy at every meeting and gathering, plus inspired those around her to embrace each day with enthusiasm. She has a remarkable legacy of kindness, being a good friend to all, and vibrant love for life. Memories of our times together remain evergreen.

To Diane, Paul, and Claire, I am so deeply sorry for the loss of your marvelous sister. She will be greatly missed. Please know that you are in my thoughts during this difficult time.

“Lynn was such a beautiful person and wonderful friend. I will never forget her school spirit and the many games where we cheered the Lakeside Rams to victory.

*Claire, Diane and Paul,
May God surround you with His loving arms and give you peace. I pray your love and memories will give you comfort. Heaven will be such an amazing family reunion. "Weeping may endure for a night, but JOY cometh in the morning". Psalms 30:5*
