“ Lynn'e you will be missed by so many friends and I. You were so funny and the light of a room any where we went. There were so many good times. I remember were we first meet at the bank and I'll never forget the good times we share on the mountain with close friends. I'm glad you not in pain anymore and your flying high with the angles. RIP my love and stay funny as always.

“ I was in Lynne graduating class of 78. We were friends for years during our school years. Grew up with her & all The Kincannon boys! Your dad was my family's mailman & your mom was a sweetheart. I know Lynne fought with life at times but now shes in a wonderful place with ya's mom & dad and the fight is over. No hurting,no pain Just The beauty of Heaven. I Love all you guys & You all are in my Thoughts and Prayers. I'm sorry I cant come tomorrow I have already got plans I cant change but I will ne there in Prayers. DEBBIE CUSICK

“ I remember Lynné from sunbeams at Grand Ave. She was a carbon copy of your mom with a hint of mischief thrown in for good measure. I pray that the family will find peace knowing her trials are over and she's in the arms of the One who loved her most. Know that our pirates are with you. Becky Wheeler Guinn
