

Magnolia Talley

June 21, 2011

Magnolia L. Talley, 80, of Hot Springs passed away Tuesday, June 21, 2011. She was born February 1, 1931 to Essie Mae Lewis and Richard Sandford in Dumas, Arkansas.

Magnolia was loving, kind and unpredictable; but more importantly she was a student of God's word the Bible. She has resided in Hot Springs for the past 13 years. She was a cook for many years and most recently was employed as a caretaker. If you knew her for a minute, you would remember her for a lifetime. She was predeceased by her parents; her husband, Earl Talley and two brothers, M.G. Lacy and Levi Lacy Jr.

Survivors include a brother, Johnny (Bessie) Lacy of Okolona, Arkansas; a sister, Alice (John) Thomason of Star City, Arkansas; a niece, Tamar (Marcus) Bland of Hot Springs; a host of other relatives and friends.

Visitation will be 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM Saturday at Hot Springs Funeral Home. Services will be 1:00 PM Saturday at Hot Springs Funeral Home with Calvin Lacy officiating. Burial will follow at Greenwood Cemetery.

Pallbearers are Ed Lockett, Scott Wilson, Vince Cummings, Dwight Isenhower, Keith Johnson and Logan Woodson. Honorary pallbearers are Dr. William Cole, Dr. Michael Frais, Dr. Jim Burton, Dr. P.K. Reddy, Dr. David Pruitt, staff of Quapaw Care & Rehab and staff of Odyssey Hospice.

“ *Tamar and family, we were sorry to hear of the death of your aunt. We so look forward to Jehovah's promise of the resurrection and the time when we will never lose another loved one in death. Until then we pray that you and your family gain comfort from Jehovah's word the bible and all of your brothers and sisters love extended to you not only now but in the days to come. We love you.
