“ With great pain I share this post. Marco and I were great friends back in middle and high school days. We did a lot of growing up together. We were very different in some ways but the same in so many more. For one, we were both outcasts... but outcasts together, and that was everything. Our last conversations were only a few months ago, and even though I knew the diagnosis, it never occurred to me that they'd be our last. You will be missed my brother.

8th grade class pic. I remember this day clearly.... How great we felt at this very time. We'd figured out a way to meet up for the pic.... Back right... Marco Kloss, Joe Covone and I. I noticed today for the first time that Marco crouched down to (almost) my level for the pic 😊. Great guy he was.

“ Marco is A true definition of a friend. He'd help anyone who needed help. For me personally, he spent tons of hours researching my son's and husband's cases. He wanted us to have justice. He took steps to help make that happen. I only met with Marco once. That didn't matter, he was already looking into our cases, reading &. digging up info way before our meeting and even after. That's just who he was. A warrior for justice, for good. I've never met anyone like him. I was a total stranger who needed help, he knew it & he helped me when few would. I will never forget him and I know he will live on in many hearts, not just mine. They don't make em like him anymore. A true legend. Rest in Eternal Love Marco. Until we meet again.

“ I've known Marco for alot of years. We were always friends and cool with each other. We would cut each other off if one of us was messing up, lol but our friendship always picked back up when which ever one that messed up came back to our senses. Marco you will be missed. And all the rally done for the sake of wrongful doing.

Your were loved here and will always be missed and love still. Till we meet again my friend.

Amber I'm so sorry for your loss. I wish I had known what was going one. I'm always here for you. Love you girl “ *Amber I am so sorry for your loss. You and Marco have been there for my family thru some of our hardest times. Marco has always been there any time me or my family has ever needed anything.

Him and his family treated my dad like he was family. Marco was by far one of the best friends my Dad ever had. And I will never forget him for everything he did for my dad and the rest of my family. Just know he's not suffering anymore and he's probably up there in heaven giving my dad hell right now just like they used to before my dad passed away lol. Marco will never be forgotten and will always be watching over all of us.*

“ Marco was a friend and man I admired for his honesty and courage in life. He was quick to admit he had made mistakes but he used those mistakes to encourage others to have Hope and Faith . I am certain he is resting in the arms of our Lord and out of pain and discomfort.

“ aMarco, taken from this life much too soon. He left indelible marks on those who knew him. Always the champion of the under dog, and willing to speak about injustice. A true craftsman and a beautiful person. The world will be an emptier place without him. RIP, Marco. Condolences and heartfelt prayers for the family.
