

Maren "GiGi" Cook

February 27, 2024

In loving memory of Maren Cook, affectionately known as Gigi to the neighborhood kids and cherished by the apple of her eye, her grandson, Jesse Sierra. Maren's heart of gold and warm spirit endeared her to all who crossed her path; she never met a stranger. Her unwavering love extended to her son, whom she fiercely admired and supported. She leaves behind her partner in life, Charles Cockrell, her brother Clay Cook, her son Garrett Cook, and his soon-to-be wife, her "Daughter-in-Love", Mikki Sierra. In addition to her immediate family, she leaves behind many other family members and friends who loved her deeply.

Born and raised in Hot Springs, Maren was a proud graduate of Hot Springs High School. She now joins her parents, Herbie and Lou Nell Cook, and her beloved Bamba in Heaven. Maren's kindness and love will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. May she rest in eternal peace.

“ Maren, my heart is broken, but I know your with your precious Mom and Dad. We had lots of laughs and she'd some tears, but some of my fondest memories was when I taught you piano when we were in high school. I love and miss you, RIP my dear friend!

“ I sure did love your mom. We had some laughs in high school and reconnected in recent years. We shared loving thoughts with each other with nearly every contact. Her family and friends will be in my heart and in my thoughts.
