“ Condolences to Judy, Terry and Melvin and all those who loved Miss Margaret. She has left behind many moments to remember...some larger than life. Margaret was a handful, and always made us feel like family when we visited.

She taught Johnny how to make pie crust and...she taught me how to slow down. When we all lived on Bent Tree Court, to us, she and Dub were the perfect couple; he loved to eat and she loved to cook and if there were any leftovers, we got 'em.

Nobody else called me "Hon". That was reserved for Miss Margaret.

Love to Judy, Terry and Melvin.

“ I want to send my thoughts and prayers to Terry and family. I'll always remember an extremely kind, hardworking, and fun-loving house with Margaret and Dub when I visited their house. There was always a lively conversation there. Margaret gave her all to her family. A "grand" Mother from what I saw. My condolences to Terry and family. Joe Bonnette

“ Judy,
I will not be in town on Tuesday, but your family will be in my thoughts and prayers. I will always treasure the times spent with your mom during your piano lessons. She was so supportive and one could tell how much she loved you. She was a beautiful lady. I know you will miss her, but she is at peace now and enjoying her reward for being such a great Mom.
Love you,
JoAnn Ross

“ I had the privilege of caring for Miss Margaret for many years. Love her dearly. Always looked forward to her smile and laughter. She loved her coffee and paper every morning. She will be missed very much. Judy, hopefully Miss Margaret and my mom are sharing a cup of coffee as they receive their wings and walk the streets of gold...waiting for us to get there. Sincerely, Tina Webb

“ I remember so vividly the early years of Lakeview and being there so many times with Margaret and Dub in so many situations and circumstances. It was a blessed time. Margaret was usually quiet but very faithful. I am sure she and Mom will have had a conversation by now! Praying for you to all experience God's strength and peace.

“ Dean and I remember so well when he was Minister of Music back in the 60's at Hot Springs First Assembly of God. Margaret came and offered her help to take care of the Music books, sheet music, etc. As long as we were there, she took care of this. She certainly had the "Gift of Helps" and was such a blessing. Admired her and loved her very much. Heaven is much sweeter today. Sweet memories.... Dean and Carolyn Shumway

“ I will always remember my first family Sundays, and dinners with Aunt Margaret and Uncle Dub. She was a huge influence on my young life and helped me in some tough times as did Uncle Dub. My gratitude to her is unmeasurable, my grief of loss deep, but her memory will always be in my heart to ease any feeling of loss, because I feel she has not gone, and is with me and us all in spirit and heart. <">< Love you Aunt M.
