

Margaret Henry

April 18, 2013

Margaret (Maggie) E. Henry of Hot Springs passes away on April, 18, 2013, at a local hospital. She was born on January 19th, 1914, to Bernard E. Smith and Fern Johnston, in Stuttgart, Arkansas. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husbands, Fred Burnett, Joseph Henry and step son James Ray Henry. She leaves behind a daughter in law, Margaret Ann Henry of Mesquite, Texas and many friends in Malvern and Hot Springs, Arkansas. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Hot Springs since 1978 where she was a choir member and also the Ukulele group. She was also a member of the Eastern Stars for over 50 years. She asks that in lieu of flowers that memorials be made to the Senior Adult Fellowship class of the First Baptist Church or to the charity of your choice. I would like to thank all of those that took care of Maggie at Garland Nursing Home and the nurses at National Park and the Odyssey Hospice. Thanks for your loving care. A Memorial Service will be held on Wednesday, April, 24th at 2:00P.M. in Hot Springs Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor John McCollum officiating. Interment will be at Social Hill Cemetery.

“ I haven't seen Maggie in several years but she was such a dear friend when I moved into the apartment above her on Higdon Ferry. Always smiling, sweet, sharing, caring. Our loss is heaven's gain. There's some ukelele playing going on up there now, and some yummy ranger cookies of hers being passed around. Prayers going up on your behalf.
