“ I did not know Margaret, but, know her great granddaughter, Dianne Jarrell, and heard Dianne speak of her often when we worked together in Washington, D.C. Would love to reconnect with Dianne.

“ Margaret Edna was one of the most wonderful, loving, caring, intelligent, Christian, and worldly persons I've ever known. With a memory second-to-none, her knowledge and recall of family history, events, antiques, and just about anything was truly amazing. She was beautiful in so many ways that go far beyond physical appearances. With the loss of her sister and my mother, Virginia ("Punkie") at age 66, Aunt Margaret Edna was my "surrogate-mom" for the past 34 years with whom I could share virtually anything just like I used to do with my own mom and dad. God must surely have a special place in Heaven for people like Margaret Edna. Our family has so many wonderful human beings, those still living, loving, and being loved and those whose love and gifts are now earthly legacies and God's treasures in Heaven. Margaret Edna, our earthly loss is Heaven's gain. Marilyn and I will miss you but never forget you, ray
