“ I remember staying in Texarkana one summer with my Grandmother Beckham and working at Uncle Buddy's bicycle shop. I remember having lunch at Aunt Marian's house (who lived right down the street on Spruce Street) and visiting with Sue and my other cousins!

“ When we were little the kids would watch us on New Year's Eve because it was Momma and Daddy's anniversary. They would come home before midnight and Aunt a Marian would give us her pots and pans to bang together outside to bring in the New Year! Also all of the reunions at Hudson St and a fish fries and dinners at the Hush Puppy! And of course her introducing me to bingo lol. Always fun times! Will miss her so much!
