Martha C. Story

A lifelong Hot Springs resident and member of a pioneer family died at home Monday, Sept. 9, 2013, after a long illness.

Martha Caldwell Story, 94, was born May 16, 1919, to Issac Monroe Caldwell and Margaret P. Caldwell of Hot Springs.

A Hot Springs High School graduate, she worked briefly as a hairstylist before becoming a full-time homemaker.

She was preceded in death by husbands Ira Lollis and Ollie Story, both of Hot Springs. She was also preceded in death by one brother, Melton Caldwell of Hot Springs and by two sisters, Modine Chitwood of Hot Springs and Margaret Melahn of Mexico, Mo.

She was a member of First Baptist Church of Hot Springs.

Survivors include one daughter, Mollie Lollis Muldoon, and husband, Mike, one stepdaughter, Patricia Cook, and husband Brad, all of Hot Springs; and one stepson, Wayne Story, and wife, Patricia, of Fayetteville; three grandchildren, Scott Muldoon (Johnna) of Grosse Pointe, Mich., Melynda Gidcomb (Jimmy) and Matthew Muldoon (Sandy), all of Hot Springs, five great-grandchildren, Metairie Muldoon and Cosette Muldoon of Grosse Pointe, Mich., Mollie Margaret Gidcomb of Hot Springs, Madison Muldoon and Mattox Muldoon of Hot Springs.

She is also survived by several nephews and nieces.

Graveside services will be at 11 a.m. Friday, Sept. 13, at Greenwood Cemetery with the Rev. Michael Pounders officiating.

The family wishes to acknowledge and thank the following persons for their loving care and assistance during Mrs. Story's illness: Nephew Bill Chitwood and his wife, Nancy, of Hot Springs Village; friends, Melinda Gassaway, Eva Evans, Ruth Parsons, Dona Rankin, Robin and David Oliver, all of Hot Springs; friend and neighbor, Vivian Bonilla of Hot Springs; good neighbor, Harold Rust of Hot Springs; Arkansas Hospice and at-home attendant, Margo Diaz of Hot Springs.
