

Marvin L. Ekleberry

November 10, 1943 - March 6, 2022

Marvin L. Ekleberry, 78, of Norman passed away Sunday, March 6, 2022. He was born November 10, 1943 in Ohio.

He was a member of Black Springs Baptist Church in Norman and a United States Army Veteran. He owned and operated a locksmith shop in Ohio for 25 years and when he moved to Hot Springs he worked at National Park Medical Center as a security guard and boiler operator and also worked at the Math and Science School as a boiler operator and in the maintenance department.

He was predeceased by his parents; two sons, Wayne Ekleberry & Chad Ekleberry and one sister, Helen.

Survivors include his wife, Alvina Ekleberry of Norman; two sons, Brad Ekleberry and Thad Ekleberry both of Bradenton, FL; one stepson, David Pulley of Glendale, AZ; two stepdaughters, Mary Montgomery of Glenwood & Jennifer Bryant of Hot Springs; one sister, Joan Delp of Bradenton, FL; and one grandchild, Skyler Johnston and several other grandchildren.

There will be no services, per his wishes.

Tribute Wall

LS

“ My condolences to Brad & Thad on the passing of their father Marvin and to his wife Jean. Never had the pleasure to meet him, but had only spoken to him via phone.

Lisa S - November 17, 2023 at 04:22 PM

CL

“ Marvin and I (Cheri Leberri) shared 33 years together most of those years in Fremont Ohio, we had 4 sons together, we shared happy years , redid several house together Worked together. So sad to hear of his passing.

Cheri Leberri - March 13, 2022 at 06:16 PM

MM

“ He is my step dad and I'm honored to have had him in my life. He made my mom so happy. We was with him to the end COVID didn't take him he said and I said nope not while I'm taking care of ya you just got to put up with us cause of cabin fever.lol I love working with him on the house in the yard and in his shop. I love you and miss him so much

Mary Montgomery - March 11, 2022 at 08:43 PM