She was one of Jehovah's Witnesses for forty plus years and she always tried to exemplify love towards all. She loved going in the door-to-door ministry to teach others about Jehovah. Mary was a genuinely kind person that never said an ill word about anyone. Louise was a devoted single mother and the love of her life was her daughter, LaQuinta. She enjoyed spending quality time with her grandchildren and even drove miles to see them play in their different sporting events.

She was considered the "Fun Aunt" to her nieces and nephews. They enjoyed baking, going swimming, shopping and bowling when they spent time with her. She especially enjoyed quality time with her family and friends. They would get together and play card games, dance and laugh the night away. She was also known for making the best cakes in Hot Springs.
