

Mary (Sally) Clausel

September 20, 1933 - May 8, 2014

Mary (Sally) Clausel of Hot Springs, AR graduated to Heaven on May 8, 2014 at the age of 80. She was born to Robert and Mary Stewart on September 20, 1933 in Memphis, Tennessee.

Sally is survived by her daughter, Lea Ann Coleman and husband Terry, of Hot Springs; three grandchildren, who affectionately called her Gran, Dr. Nathan Coleman and Stefanie of Fort Dodge, Iowa; Emily Coleman of Fort Worth, Texas; and Joel Coleman and Kassie of Arkadelphia, AR. She had recently been blessed with a great granddaughter, Tessa Danielle, also in Iowa. She is also survived by four brothers: Robert and Nell Stewart of Boone, NC; Jimmy and Nell Stewart of McKinney, TX; Paul and Sonja Stewart of Waco, TX; and Wayne and Joan Stewart of Middleburg, FL. She was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. Clint Clausel, a sister, Dorothy, and her parents.

Gran was unashamedly a believer in Jesus Christ. She served in many local church leadership capacities throughout her adult life and served in Belize and Ghana as a volunteer missionary for over 6 years. She was involved in several endeavors in any community she lived such as Girl Scouts, Hospice, and others.

She lived a full and vibrant life. Her work resume includes executive secretary, tire store co-owner, roofing-shingle business co-owner, owner of a Bed &

Breakfast, and private investigator plus many other business endeavors. She was a world traveler visiting perhaps as many as 20 countries. She loved Biblical preaching and spiritual music. She never claimed perfection but tried to live so that others would be drawn to her Savior.

Sally chose to donate her body to Genesis for medical research. At a future date a memorial service will be planned in honor of her memory and a celebration of her life. In her name the family suggests a donation to either the Wounded Warriors Project or People International for Missionaries Lee/Julie Shepherd Acct. 110.

A celebration of her life will be held at 6:00 PM Thursday May 22nd at Lake Hamilton Baptist Church.
