“ Nana, What a strong woman you were! I learned so much from you that will never be forgotten. Many wonderful memories will linger as long as I live... You would always say do your "lessons," be stong for your mom, and don't pop your knuckles. There are a few things that I can promise you... I will always love you and never forget how greatful I was to have such a strong, loving grandmother; I will always stay stong and take care of mom; And I will see you again. - Forever Missed and Always Loved-All my love, Melissa God be with the family and friends of this wonderful woman as they lift her up to you...
