“ Jan, Ann, Cindy and Mark. Your mom and I go way back. Too many stories to even start with. But I was shocked to know I never knew her real name. She will be missed more than you will ever know.

“ Ann, Jan, Cindy and Mark .. Doodle was a great gal. I remember our families getting together many years ago.. and having such good old family fun. Our children and grandchildren are fortunate to have known them all. But now it is time for us to carry on without them.. and for the four of them to join together and rejoice in heaven. Johnny and Gib will be telling stories and Doodle and Doris comparing their paintings, reading and sewing. It is hard to lose them but great to have known them.
