“ One Thanksgiving my husband and I were invited to dinner at Mary and Gary's house. Mary became ill a few days before the holiday but she delegated each dish to her daughters and hosted a lovely dinner. She was a great cook and probably all her daughters are as well. I was so impressed that she continued on with her plans even though she wasn't physically up to the preparations-she went to Plan B. I always admired her strength. She was a beautiful woman and I'm happy to have known her. I believe she is now safe in the arms of Jesus....free from pain. She will be missed by all who knew her.

“ Heaven has gained a true gem. What a special woman.! She was one of the most giving, loving and forgiving person I've met. She loved her family and always tried to do her best for them. Mary never gave you second best but always gave the best of herself. She was absolutely crazy about her husband Garry and had said on many occasions how much he meant to her! Mary will be missed very much but I look forward to seeing her again and laughing together as we often did. Prayers for Garry and all of the children and whole family!
