

Mary Watson

May 10, 2013

Mary G. Watson, 85, of Hot Springs passed away Friday May 10, 2013. She was born February 4, 1928 to the late Bertie Collie Grissom and Jess Grissom in Malvern, Arkansas.

Mary grew up in Malvern and later moved to Shreveport, Louisiana then to Houston, Texas where she worked as an Executive Secretary for Marathon Oil then retired to Hot Springs. She was a member of Central Baptist Church where she taught Sunday school; a member of the Garland County EHC and Blue Coats. She was predeceased by her parents; one brother, Charles Grissom and three sisters, Elizabeth Huddleston, Florence Riggan and Marguerite Calloway.

Survivors include one brother & sister-in-law, Edward & Betty Grissom of Texarkana; many nieces and nephews.

She was one of the most loving and generous people you would ever meet. We will truly miss her sweet spirit and loving attitude.

Services will be 10:00 AM Friday May 17th at Hot Springs Funeral Home with Reverend Mike Smith officiating. Burial will follow at Shadowlawn Cemetery in Malvern.

Pallbearers are Mike Davenport, Randy Greeson, Denney Albrecht and Ryan Davenport.

The family would like to especially thank the wonderful staff at Crown Trace Villa and Arkansas Hospice for the attention and extra care they gave her the last two years.
