

Mary Wright

July 26, 2010

Mary Baldwin Wright died peacefully at home in Hot Springs on Monday, July 26, 2010.

Mary was born in Fort Smith, Arkansas on January 16, 1922 to William Alexander Baldwin and Ethel Clement Baldwin of Plainview, AR. She grew up in Russellville and graduated from Russellville High School in 1939. She attended Gulf Park College and the University of Arkansas. She was a member of Chi Omega Sorority. She was an associate member of Hot Springs Junior Auxiliary, the Symphony Guild, Lake Valley Community Church, and Hot Springs Women of Prayer. She was married to Dr. Jack Wright.

Mary hosted many Bible studies in her home and later at The Trinity Mini-Mall (formerly The Wright Medical Clinic). The Mini-Mall was also home to the Green Herb Tea Room, which Mary opened with friends, Nancy Smith and Winnie Goodrum.

She is survived by three sons and daughters-in-law: Dr. William Jackson Wright and wife Sarah, the Honorable Judge John Homer Wright and wife Karen, and Jack Baldwin Wright and wife Twila; seven grandchildren: Dr. Cody Wright and wife Keri, Matthew Wright and wife Ruthie, Joshua Wright and wife Emily, David Wright and wife Lynn, Susannah Wright, Mary Elizabeth Wright, and Jack Paris Wright; and eight great-grandchildren.

The family extends special thanks to Mary's caregivers, Betty Davis, Annie Harrington, Pauline Young and Bobbi Ingram, as well as Stacey Davis and the other nurses from Arkansas Hospice.

There will be a private interment, followed by a memorial service at Lake Valley Community Church at 11 a.m. on Thursday, July 29, 2010.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Lake Valley Community Church, The Caring Place, or the Charitable Christian Medical Foundation.
