“ I will always remember growing up and going to their house having so much fun there was never a dull moment, it was always laughing, playing jokes on everyone but most of all LOVE. Him and Aunt Margie had a love that was unexplainable, I admired the love, respect and loyalty they had for one another and I use to say I can't wait to find someone to love me the way they loved each other. All my cousins were blessed to have such wonderful parents. No matter how hard things in life were they were always there to make life better. He will truly be missed. Prayers for Aunt Margie and all the family as well. I love you all so much.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mike was always so supportive of his family & he had a great sense of humor. Toni, I read your post & agree your Mom & Dad had something special together. Margie, you & Mike were the best when I did cheer. Couldn't ask for better friends. I always loved having a Phillips child. Love you.

“ Simply put, my dad was an amazing man. Caring, supportive, compassionate, loving and oh so much fun to be around.

My dad was the first man I ever loved. He was my fishing buddy. Well, he didn't really get to fish that much because he was constantly having to put another worm on my hook. Best popcorn fish ever! He was creative and handy at everything. He was MikeGyver (His play on words for being just like MacGyver). We crafted and built so many things together. From school projects like explaining Newton's third law (every action there is an equal but opposite reaction) with a balloon, straw and a string of yarn, to making a completely functioning robot. We once made a huge T-Rex out of chicken wire and grew ivy on it. There were so many more projects but those are some of my favorites. His final project was building a cabin. We all pitched in and helped him finish it. That time was absolutely priceless... and seriously hard work. Great family memories were made building that cabin, that is what made the cabin so special to him (mom and all of us too). Family is everything. He showed that in his actions every day.

He loved to cut up and have a good time. Singing the best songs at the best times to make you smile. You couldn't help but sing and dance right along with him. He really was "Bad to the Bone" and could "Walk like an Egyptian" like no other. In my eyes, he could do any and everything. He was my real-life version of Superman. Tough as nails! He taught me how to tough it out and persevere through anything life threw at me by simply saying "It's a good thing you are so tough".

The most valuable lesson that my dad taught me was how to love. The way he loved all his children, grandchildren, and great grandchild was so pure... but he loved my mom in a way that you think would only exist in fairytales. He was truly an amazing man. I miss him so much.

“Dad, you are the first man I have ever loved. Thank you for being a rock in our family. You are the reason I got into nursing. You taught me to be caring, strong, and independent. You also taught us how to love unconditionally. I know that we have a lot of similarities. However, the one that I love the most is our shared sense of humor. We were always the funnest people we knew. I miss you most!

Love your fourth child,

~Stephanie~

“ Mike was a good man. In all the years I knew him, working with him at the hospital, our kids growing up together, I saw him as a man who loved his family with everything he had. In all those years I never heard him say a harsh word about his wife or his kids. He loved them unconditionally. He will be missed by anyone and everyone who knew him even slightly. My heart hurts for those left behind but I know they hold precious memories that can never be erased.

“ I have always idolize my dad, I always wanted to make him so proud of me. He was a man of few words but when he spoke I listened, whole heartedly.

He was a protector, he cared about our family and worked his ass off to provide for our family. When he laughed we all laughed. Us girls (his daughters) loved embarrassing him by singing in public Wilson Phillips “Hold on” secretly we knew he loved it!! Every chance we got us 4 girls busted out the lyrics with no musical ability and no care with who was watching...

His love for our mom has always been inspirational. Growing up they were goofing with each other and showed a lot of love and affection towards each other. (As kids we thought it was so yucky, it wasn't until we got older we realize how special their relationship was)

My dad is my hero. Even though he is gone he will always be my hero. He was a fighter we always called him Superman and he always wore his Superman shirt proudly!!

I love you Dad, I'm sorry for being selfish and wanted you to still be here with us. I wanted to wake up to be told it was a bad dream.. but I know you was in pain and you was suffering. I just hope you know how much love and respect I have for you. I know you are proud of me and I know you loved me and my family so much.

You maybe gone but will never be forgotten!

With all my heart and soul

Your oldest daughter Toni

I worked with Mike in the very early years of our careers, when we both worked in orthopedics. Mike was very determined to continue with his career in nursing. A very loving family man, Mike loved his children and especially his Margie. To the family, I am so sorry for the loss of your wonderful husband, father, grandfather. May you all find peace in the wonderful memories shared. Candis Oliver

PS

I am so sorry to hear about Mike. We worked together at CHI in Hot Springs. He was a kind man with a gentle spirit and we often talked about our children and life in general. I considered him a very good friend. My heart goes out to his wife, children and all family and friends. May God surround you with His love and peace.
