“ These fine, Godly service people were my grandparents best friends. Marilyn was my babysitter when I was a kid. I have never, known any better, kinder people than these fine folks. People like them, make you believe in God. I have not seen them in 35-40 years but I know, People like this only get better with age. Bless their extended families. 🙏💜🇺🇸

“ I am so sorry to hear that Morris has passed away. As his cousin and knowing him all my life, I can say what a wonderful person he was. I will miss not being able to keep in touch with him through e-mails, by phone and sometimes in person. Rest in peace, Morris. Your cousin forever, Sue Bryant Massengale

“ We surely thank the Lord for the privilege of knowing Morris and you, June. We were blessed by the friendship, and by the little church. We have no doubt where Morris is now, and expect to see him again, when we see the Lord Jesus.
