

Nancy Mitchell

November 26, 2010

Nancy Sharon Mitchell, 67, of Hot Springs, Arkansas fell asleep in death Friday, November 26, 2010 at 4:40 pm at St. Joseph's Hospital surrounded by family and friends. She was born in El Dorado, Kansas to Robert Lytle and Gladys Payton Lytle and she married Alvin Mitchell July 21, 1984. She enjoyed drawing, painting, writing, gardening, but her most favorite hobbies, however, were spending time with her children and grandchildren, and 3 kitty's, Rosie Belle, Tom and Kit. She had faith in the Bible promise recorded at Isaiah 25:8 which reads: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Nancy is survived by her husband, Alvin Mitchell; her sister, Barbara Alexander; six children, Craig Hendrix, Serena Hall, Cheryl Fischer, James Hendrix, Pamela Baxter and Diane Ashmore; ten grandchildren; six great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. She was an active member of the Hot Springs West Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. Her memorial service was held Monday, November 29, 2010 at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses on Marion Anderson Road, officiated by Brother Dale Flemming. She will be dearly missed by her family and her congregation.

Tribute Wall

RN

“ I am very sorry for your loss she will be missed

ronda newmyer - October 04, 2012 at 09:28 AM

DH

“ My deepest sympathy over your loss. Nancy was very influential on my life, and I always loved her calm and steadiness. She was always good to me. I loved her. She will be missed.Love, Diane Lytle Hodge

Diane Lytle Hodge - May 02, 2011 at 06:15 PM

DH

“ My sincere sympathy to the family for your loss. Nancy played a very influential role in my young adult life. I loved her and have many wonderful memories of her. She was the calm and steadiness I needed. She will be missed.Love, Your half sister, Diane

Diane Lytle Hodge - May 02, 2011 at 06:12 PM