“ Saddened to hear the news of Sister Autrey's passing. She was a great example of everything a true woman of God should be. I have many great memories of going to church with her, Brother Autrey and Janice at Mountain Pine First Assembly. I really loved to hear them sing and preach. They both were a tremendous blessing to so many people and touched so many with the good news of Jesus. I'm so glad to be one of those lives they helped change. May God bless the entire family. I'm praying for you all.... ..
