“ I knew Pam for just a few precious years; she was one of my first friends I made when I moved to Hot Springs in 2013. We lost touch when I moved back to Kentucky to care for my parents, but I thought of her often and of the many highs and lows we went through as friends. My favorite memories of her are guessing which wig she'd be sporting that day, and seeing her beautifully expressive blue eyes crinkle up as she broke into that fabulous, yet totally genuine smile, acknowledging the compliments of her beauty!!! And that she truly was, a beauty, inside and out. Find rest and peace, my dear friend. I miss you.

“ So sad to hear about the passing of Aunt Pam. I take comfort in knowing that she has moved onto heaven and is no longer bound by her failing health. I will never forget her contagious laugh and smile and how she could always brighten your day. She was always so much fun to be around and I know that she touched the lives of so many with her genuine care for others. She will be missed greatly. God Bless.

“ Josh and family- I'm truly so sorry to hear about the passing of your mom. She was a great person to know and be related to. One of my favorite memories of her is when she lost her leg and foot. My mom told her. They can be book ends together.. Aunt Pam, you will always be special to me.. Please tell my loved ones I miss and love them. See you someday again. You're now pain free and no more suffering. Enjoy your afterlife.. Josh- I'm always going be here for you no matter what. Hugs. Love you and your mom always.

Heather, I remember Pam told me your mom said that about being bookends. She was so supportive of Pam, and they had good times together! Marleen

“ I will truly miss seeing you, Aunt Pam. I will always cherish and treasure our special memories close to my heart. Truly so sorry to hear, Josh. Now she's pain free and not suffering no more. Here's one of my greatest memories of your mom. I remember when she lost her leg and foot. My mom said to her we can be book ends. Cause Mom lost her leg and foot too.. Aunt Pam- you were very special to me.. I'll never forget you.. Hugs and love to you, Josh always. I'm here for you no matter what. May you rest in peace, Aunt Pam..
