“ Pat was a dear friend, having such good times together, beginning in 4th grade. She was a calming influence in my life, always the one that never got mad. I have so many great memories, but I will always remember her mom and dad welcoming me to their home and making me feel like a member of the family. Pat was a special person. Please accept my deepest sympathy in her passing.

“ I grew most all of my childhood with Aunt Pat, Leonard, Steve and Debbie living next door to me. I grew up with them and Pat watching us. She was a second mom to me. I will miss our visits and laughs.
