Patricia (Pat) Ann Reed, 88, was born July 19, 1931, in Erie County, Pa., and died February 21 2020, in Malvern AR. She was the daughter of Aubrey E. and Clara S. Reynolds. Pat married John Reed on Jan. 1, 1948, at St. Tresa Catholic Church, in Union City, Pa and moved to Hot Springs in the early 50s. She was a member of St. John's Catholic Church. Pat Reed worked in the food and beverage industry for most of her life. Pat's first job after arriving in Hot Springs was as a soda jerk at Purity Ice Cream. She started her career as a waitress working for Phillips Drive In located on Central Avenue. She was a former manager of the Avanelle Restaurant and former food and beverage manager of the Velda Rose Towers Restaurant which was located on Park Avenue, working there for a number of years. She also owned and operated El Tacos Mexican Restaurant. For more than 30 years, Pat dedicated her time to supporting Small Group Work Therapy Inc., working as a volunteer, board member and president. Mrs. Reed was a recipient of the Hot Springs Hospitality Association's President's Award, presented annually to a member for outstanding service to the Annual Convention, which is held each year in Hot Springs. The award is traditionally given to a supplier firm, but the group deviated from that practice because of Mrs. Reed's many years of service. Pat assisted the convention by setting up and dressing the registration desk at the convention, while serving sandwiches and coffee to early arrivals that came to help in the preparation efforts. She was also cited for her efforts in supplying food and supplies for the Association's Annual Early Bird Party, which is designed to bring delegates in one day early. Since the inception of Early Bird Party, registration for the Annual Convention and Trade Show has increased significantly. Mrs. Reed also served five terms as president of Garland County Hospitality Association. Pat was in the advertisement business, owning and operating Travel Host Magazine, which was distributed to hotels and restaurants in Hot Springs for their guests. She was active in community affairs with her volunteer services. She worked in public relations with Witness Productions. The Witness is a passion play located in Hot Springs, Arkansas, which portrays the life of Jesus with music.
