

Paul Alan Dee

May 31, 1938 - November 26, 2016

Paul Alan Dee Sr passed away November 26th after his battle with brain cancer. He served his country in the Army in the 50's.

He married the cute little red head he picked up at a stop light who gave him three children, Paul, Fred and Brenda, four grandchildren, Kristen, Ashley, Tiffany, Kalina and three great grandchildren, Wyatt, Addison, Emma over 52 years of marriage.

He always had a joke to entertain and uplift the people and he seemed to know a lot of them all over town. Do you know the difference between sex and a sandwich? In lieu of flowers make a contribution to American Cancer Society who helped up so much.

We invite family and friends to come celebrate Paul's life at our home, 5:00 – 7:00 P.M. Wednesday, November 30, 2016.

“ Hi, Paul Dee's family and friends. Such sad news of Paul's passing. I met Paul as one of my customers at Lowe's in Hot Springs. What a guy!!! Always with a joke. The heading on this post said "Share a Memory" so I thought you might get some fun from this story.

One day two of us Lowe's employees got an invitation to attend lunch at Red Lobster from Paul. We had no idea what was going on. As it turned out there were 2 or 3 other people from other businesses in Hot Springs also. It was a thank you lunch.

Paul had picked several of us from places of business that he shopped regularly for materials and services for his business. He wanted to thank us for the professional manner in which we treated him and worked with him as a friend not just a customer.

We had lunch and then he presented all of us a big cardboard box. Inside the box was a very large assortment of light bulbs. What??? At least that was my first thought. There were big bulbs and there small bulbs and bulbs in between. We all thanked him and after a while we all went back to work.

Here is the funny neat part about that box of light bulbs. There were bulbs in that box I had no use for - at the time. But over time like 2-3 years and with a little help from our grown children, we used everyone of those bulbs.

Was it a vision LOL, I don't know. But he was a fun guy and I am glad we met and shared a laugh or two!!!
