“ So sorry to hear of Randy's passing. He and my husband Bill played softball together years before we were married. And I worked at St. Joe with him. We call each other birthday buddies. I was born one his birthday but he always told everyone I was older. We shared our birthday cake sometimes. He was a good friend and had lots of stories to tell. My prayers are with your family. And my God watch over you now and always. He is at peace now and no more heart attacks. We will miss . God Bless your whole Willis family
