“Ricky you were a fighter and you won the battle. You are no longer in any pain or suffering. I am glad I got to see you a few months ago and see you fight back in ICU. You bragged on me every time a nurse walked into your room and made my heart swell with pride...”this is my uncle Darrell and he is a really good family man”. RIP Richard Dean "Dink" Speers. You will be missed by many and never be forgotten.

“ I remember when I was in first grade at school we had a happy daughter dance and so I asked my dad (Ricky) to go with me which of course he said yes that night of the dance he brought his PSP and stood in the corner playing games until I dragged him to dance with me. i love my dad and I will miss him. he was the funniest person ever and had the biggest heart. I love my dad and I wouldn't ask for another one

“ I only had the opportunity to meet Ricky a few times, but always cared for him as my husband, Ricky's Uncle Darrell, loved him so much. I've respected his tenacity and the strength of his spirit in the face of his battle with cancer. I've also respected his sense of humor and refusal to give up or give in. The world is sadder without his presence. 😞
