When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me. I want no rites in a gloom filled room. Why cry for a soul set Free. Miss me a little but not to long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love we once shared, Miss me but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take and we must go alone.

It's all part of the makers plan a step on the road home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know, and bury your sorrows in loving good deeds. Miss me but let me go.

His wishes were for no services
