

Robert Kendig

June 29, 2012

Robert L. Kendig, 82, of Hot Springs Village passed away Friday June 29, 2012. He was born March 12, 1930 to the late Enid Simpson Kendig and Benjamin Kendig in Abington, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Kendig was a retired Chemical Engineer; attended Village Bible Church; Village Evening Lions Club and a United States Air Force Veteran serving during the Korean Conflict.

Survivors include his wife, Jenna Kendig of Hot Springs Village; one son, Rob Kendig of Torrington, Connecticut; one daughter, Nancy (Ed) Beneda of Grand Forks, North Dakota; two stepsons, Gary (Theresa) Parks of Jessieville and David Parks of Hot Springs; one stepdaughter, Lynne (David) Diehl of Hot Springs Village; grandchildren, Sarah (Ryan) Hobbs, Julie Yaunches, Drew & Bailey Diehl and Dylan Parks.

A private family memorial service will be held at a later date. His body was donated to Medical Science.

Memorials may be made to Village Evening Lions Club or the Charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

JU

“ My grandfather was a wonderful man. For all my life I was proud to be his granddaughter. He taught me patience, forgiveness, and compromise. He showed me that hard work and determination do pay off.. but to be happy with what life gives you as a result. He also showed me how important it is to be able to laugh at yourself. I'll always remember how the department store mannequins never did give him directions to the bathroom. :-) Granddad, you'll stay in my memory forever. I love you.

Julie - July 10, 2012 at 06:46 PM

BK

“ Sad to hear about Bob. He stayed with us while he was in college for a while. I remember all his test tubes and beakers. I have the family picture on the wall of my office. Bob looks like he is about 10 or 12 years old. He is standig at the left next to Gloria and in front of Charlie. They all dressed up for the family picture. Vivienne sits between Grandma and Grandpa.

Ben Kendig - July 04, 2012 at 08:13 AM