“ I have been a neighbor of Mr Miller for 30 years. He was a hard working man in his family business along with his current wife Marty. I loved his jokes he always told me. I want to thank him for getting my daughter involved in bowling, and she was on a league for over 6 years. I also remembered that anytime I had a yard sale, he told his wife to come over and buy something. I also remember him talking about his boys and would cry with worry about his youngest son. He prayed that all his children be self sufficient individuals, after he was gone from this earth. He had a strong personality, but a very kind heart. RIL. Mr Miller. Good Bless Nancy
