“ I have so many memories, so many thoughts, so many regrets. I know that this man loved us with all of his heart and I will forever be a daddy's girl! From Astros games to camping trips, I followed him all over and he was my hero. We shared a love for sports... Who is going to text me to tell me the cowboys lost and they still suck??? I love you daddy. Forever and always I will miss you. I will always be your little girl ❤️

“ Uncle ronnie will always hold a special place in my heart. Him and aunt cathy were (and still are) my second set of parents. He was a strong, loving, and kind man. I will cherish each and every memory I have with him. He was and forever will be a super hero in my eyes. The lord called him home...he traded in his cape for a set of wings. And I know I will see him again someday. I love you uncle ronnie ALWAYS AND FOREVER.

“ I have many memories as a child (because I was the youngest 1st cousin) of Ronnie and Cathy and Whitney when she was little like me. My daddy and mom (Uncle Gene and Aunt Terry) thought the world of him.. My dad shared many stories of him and his brother's and sisters.. I send all my love and prayers to my cousins and know Ronnie is always looking down on you all!
