“ I worked with lee for a time and knew him even longer. I want to thank him for his friendship and, selflessness. My heart is grieved and, I only wish they were here. I will always remember him well. I'm grateful that I could call him a friend. What a senseless tragedy. Sincerely, Randy Womack

“ Vicki and Marion, I am so sorry, words can't even express how much I feel for your loss. You helped me with so many of my own trials without even knowing it and I wish I could do the same for you. I did not know your son or his family, but knowing you, I have no doubt they were very good people and regret not having the privilege of meeting them. Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with this family so much. I did not know Sheena and Allie, but I knew Lee. He was a Great Guy with a big heart and a good (and I mean GOOD) friend. To show him one year at his birthday how good a friend he was, I shaved my head to be like him. (It was a theatrical cap, but he didn't know it). I know he was a great husband and a awesome daddy too. I love u Lee and will miss u, Katt
