

Roy Dean Caldwell

August 3, 1943 - December 3, 2020

Roy Dean Caldwell, 77, of Buckville, Arkansas passed away December 3, 2020 at his home with his family by his side. Roy was born August 3, 1943 to the late Human and Minnie Caldwell. Roy was preceded in death by his wife, Amanda Caldwell in 1998, his son Wade Caldwell and several brothers and sisters.

Roy is survived by his wife of 20 years, Joyce Caldwell and his children, Gina and Don Coffey, Mike and Sherri May, Shari and Mark Snider and Steve and Lachel May.

Roy was a retired carpenter an avid hunter and fisherman. He enjoyed working in his garden, shooting his guns and sitting on the back deck sharing coffee and iced tea with his family and friends. Roy was a grandpa, Pa Roy and old pa to 10 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

There will be a public Celebration of Life Saturday, December 5, 2020 at 2:00 P.M. at Mt. Tabor church. Service officiated by Johnny Bratton and Jimmy Scott.

Due to Covid-19 a face covering is required and social distancing will be practiced.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

DEC 5. 2:00 PM.

Mt. Tabor Church

Tribute Wall

“ I used to go to roy and his first wife Amanda there house iwent to school with wade his son Roy was a nice man i will miss Roy he made me laugh a lot when I was younger

Chris I roe - August 26, 2024 at 03:15 PM

“ Roy was the kindest person I have ever known. He will be greatly missed by me. He and his wife Joyce were a very lovely couple and I will miss seeing them together. He always thought of others even on the days when he felt bad. He would come in the clinic and give us hard candy and always with a smile. Roy fly high and watch over the love of your life Joyce.

Jeanne Crom from Genesis Cancer Center

Barbara Crom - December 07, 2020 at 02:35 PM

AH

“ My name is Annette. My sister was Amanda Caldwell. Roy was my brother-in-law for thirty-three years. They got married when I was three months old. As a little girl, I called Amanda Sissy and Roy Brother. He called me Nette, my dad Dolph, and my mom Scratch... that was Roy.

There is neither time nor space to share all of the Roy Caldwell stories that we have all heard and told through the years. Anyone who knew him will agree. Roy was a character. I'm pretty sure that he still is.... hoping that he's hanging out with Wade right now.

Love you, Brother, tell everybody hi for me.

Annette Humphreys Hoffman - December 04, 2020 at 05:52 PM