“ I feel very blessed to have shared so many important moments in my life with you as I grew up, graduated, got married and had my daughter Skylar. You were always so excited to celebrate these moments and hear about my life. I will miss our long phone chats, card games and adventures together. I know you were ready to go and are at peace now, which makes the grieving process a little easier. Thanks for giving me so much love, support and caring ear. We will keep perking along without you, but cherish our memories and pass along traditions. I love you and miss you. - Christina Davidson, granddaughter

“ Message from Sally Davidson to her friends and family:

I am free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I am following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah, these things I, too, will miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
A loved one touched.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me.
God wanted me now; he set me free.*
