“ Jim, Unfortunately, I never had the opportunity of meeting your mother. However, if you are a reflection of your her, than she must have been a terrific woman. You know that we all are happy that you are a member of our family. You are such a great partner to Dana and a wonderful father to your children. I hope that you will think of death as just a temporary separation and that you will see your mom again in a much better time and place. Very sincerely,
Francine
