“ Sharon was one of the classiest smartest women I ever worked for. I remember her and her pride and joy Princely Proof well. She knew how to treat her horses and young women like myself on the racetrack very well. A great horsewoman and kind person. Im grateful for having learned from her. Sarah Van Loon I wish her family well.

“ I knew something was up when the boss did not send me a Christmas card. I am so upset that Sharon has passed. May she rest in peace. I look back and am thankful for knowing her and you. Both were so nice to me and my parents. May she rest in peace. She knew her horses well.

“ Many years ago when I was grooming horse for Sharon and Glenn we were at the barn in the afternoon on race day. We had a big day with 3 or 4 horses running. I was icing my horses legs and had my dachshund, Snuffy with me. I had some dog treat that looked like beef jerky. Glenn was running around (as usual) from track to the barn and grabbed one of the dog treats and began eating it. I was going to stop him but Sharon shook her head and said to let him eat it. She was a hard working wonderful woman and will be missed by many. My thoughts are with her family
