January 14, 2024

Sharon Kay Yingst (Oliver), of Hot Springs, passed away January 14, 2024. Sharon was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Sharon was always busy serving her community and church family. Sharon was affectionately known as “Nana” to, not only her family, but to every kid in the neighborhood and truthfully to anyone she ever met.

Nana spent years developing and operating a successful mom and pop candle business with the love of her life, Charlie. Sharon and Charlie fell in love in 1991 in Celina, Ohio, where they were married and raised two daughters. In 2010, they moved to Hot Springs Arkansas where Sharon continued her passion for genealogy research and loving her grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her parents, Ray Oliver and Marilyn (Forrest) Smalley; brother, Arthur Oliver and Lewis Oliver; sisters, Vikki and Peggy Oliver.

Surviving to cherish her memory is her husband, Charles L. Yingst; daughters, Marilyn Freeman (James) and Kathleen Cutter (Doug Brown), their children, Copen and Gavin Debow and Dennis Agnew; stepchildren, Connie, Calvin, Chuck, Chris, Craig and Cindy along with many more grandchildren and great-grandchildren;

Many hearts will miss our “Nana” but we all rejoice in knowing that she is again within the arms of our Savior Jesus Christ.

Services to be announced.

“ Sharon is always going to be remembered by us as a truly unique individual. She was greatly talented, she loved her Savior and her family.

She had big heart, never met a stranger, and she wasn't afraid to have an adventure! We shared quite a few and I wouldn't trade those memories for anything.

Sharon was also the possessor of the most unique sense of humor that could pop up when you least expected, and I loved that.

Our most heartfelt condolences to all of Sharon's family and loved ones.

Sharon, Had a special spirit. She had a truly infectious love of the gospel. She loved having her family being there in church with her. I always loved getting a hug from her. She will be missed.

Sharon was my cousin but like my sister. She truly was such a special person. She never met a stranger, she loved deeply, got great joy from sharing her talents and possessions with others, and longed to bring others into a knowledge and salvation in Christ. She loved her family so deeply and had a forgiving heart that overcame an early life of hardship. May she rest in peace and continue to be a good example for us all.
