“ Shawn, I miss u more than any would ever dream. You entered my life in such a very hard time and came to my rescue a many of times. We talked about so much, u confided in me about a lot and I did the same with you. Hard to find someone with whom able to talk to and not worry about them running out the mouth and downing ya. There was probly not anything, if was couldn't been much, that you didn't know bout Me. You taught me so much that it is unexplainable. Better yet, we experienced so much together that only u and I can understand. Taught me about God and how God can do for u if u only believe and have faith in him. I was slipping away from God and you saved me. Bring me back to reading my Bible and prayi g everyday as I should. When I had a problem, ur answer was pray about it. Ask God and he will help. Yes, it did help somehow or another. So hard day by day thinking of you my dear friend who I love so much and always will, and not being g able to see you or hear your voice. Glad you are in heaven being able to have peace. Please save that zpot and tell my dad and husband I love them. Cant wait to be with y'all again. I love you! Shawna Davis

“ My sweet friend... Pinky... I'll never ever forget you! My favorite memory of us would have to be when I, yes ME, climbed a tree to sit in a stand and film you hunting. And of course, you killed a big one that day!! Oh & might I add that I was instructed to use everything scent free so I wouldn't scare those deer away!! Well... it worked!! I sure will miss that contagious smile my friend. Love you always!! Love to your family!! Xoxo

“ My deepest sympathies are with you all ... Stuart, Diana and Courtney. Shawn was a bright and beautiful spirit who will be so terribly missed by all those who knew him. I pray you find strength in faith and one another as you face the difficult days ahead. Please know you are not alone. You have all been fundamentally changed by your loss. Others have too. It takes time to discover who you've become, so give yourself the gift of time to both reflect and breathe. Realize that each person is different and will grieve in ways you may not understand. During your time of sorrow, bring your family together and vow to rely upon your friends, because we love you, and we are there for you. May peace be with you Joyce McClard Stacks.

“ He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.”
May dear Shawn be basking in the glory of God, sitting at the feet of Jesus, roaming through the forests in heaven, finally at peace...
Our prayers our with all of your family.

“ We did not know Shawn, but we regret the sorrow you feel - we grieved the loss of two sons in their 20's. We can tell you that as time passes you will be able to remember more of the good times and dwell less on the loss of Shawn. We found that each person grieves in a different way and at different times, so we encourage each of you to allow for those differences in your families. We are of the Christian faith and as we dealt with our pain we came to understand that God is still sovereign. May you find comfort as you walk through this “valley of the shadow of death” and may friends share their good memories of Shawn with you.
