To know Sheila, was to love Sheila. Sheila was a loving mother, grandmother, wife, daughter and friend. She loved watching her soap operas, Dancing with the Stars, Amazing Race, Survivor, and Wheel of Fortune (but don't yell out the phrase). She was of the Baptist faith.

Sheila retired from Munro and Company in 2009 after 33 years of service.

She is survived by her four children, Cindy Green, Stephanie Green (Sam Nelson), Matthew Green (Kayla), and Anna Green; sister, Debra Weatherford; father-in-law, Charles Green; aunts, Mildred Burke and Betty Sue Weatherford; brother-in-law, Stuart Green (Gloria); nephew, Patrick Green and niece, Elizabeth Green.

Sheila had five grandchildren, Bobby Ashley, Andrew Smith, and Kynlee, Logan, and Isaac Green, and two great-grandchildren, Ryleigh and Hayden Ashley.

A Memorial Service will be held at 2:00 PM Saturday February 17th at Hot Springs Funeral Home with Reverend Donald Crossley officiating.

The family would like to thank Dr. Scott Anderson and Dr. Neeraj Bharany and their nursing staff, and the nursing staff at NPMC.

Following the service on Saturday, the family will be at 1014 Mountain Pine Road in Hot Springs.

The family has rescheduled the Memorial Service due to several family members coming down with the flu virus.

“ I had the privilege of working with Shelia at Munroe for a few years. She was always funny but professional and dedicated to her work. I haven't seen any of the folks from there in many years. My thoughts and prayers are with you
