“ I worked with Sherry for a number of years at Hot Springs Middle School. She was dedicated, caring, and hard-working. She loved the students, and she would do anything to help anyone. Her love for her husband and her children was obvious to anyone who knew her. I loved working with Sherry, and she will be missed.

“ I remember her beautiful laugh. She was always so happy and full of life. She was so caring about others. You could stop by her house and no matter what time it was she always welcomed you. Going to be missed. Heaven got a beautiful angel
