“ Although, its difficult today to see beyond the sorrow God is eager to bring our loved ones back to life(Job14:13-15). He further promises that all those in the common grave of mankind will be resurrected.(John5:28-29) May these words give you peace and comfort now and in the days ahead.

“ I hope you know how much I loved Shirl. We clicked from the very beginning and became best friends. I knew how much fun we would have when I was eating a whole grain bread and there was a large, very dark grain. Shirley, being a farm girl, I figured would recognize the grain. I showed her and asked "What do you think this is?" She, very seriously said "I think they have hamsters." And walked away!!!! I knew then IT WAS ON! She is remembered very fondly by us all.

“ Carla and Kate - my most sincere sympathy and heartfelt prayers go out to you during this most difficult time. Carla, I know this has to be hardest thing you've been through and I know there are really no words that can comfort you. I hope the fact that you have so many wonderful friends who truly care about you helps in some small way.

I have no doubt that you both brightened her life immensely and she was so incredibly proud of you. Carla, you were a WONDERFUL daughter and Kate, you were such an attentive, loving, sweet granddaughter and I know she loved you both so very much. I can't help but look at this picture and think that all three of you look so much alike - all so beautiful.

God Bless your family in the coming days and I hope He brings you all comfort in the coming days, months, and years.
