

Shirley Ann Rogers

January 16, 1939 - April 1, 2025

Shirley Ann Rogers, born January 16th 1939 in Montgomery County, AR, found peace with her Lord and Savior on April 1st 2025 at the age of 86, after a long and valiant battle with cancer at Belvedere Health and Rehab in Hot Springs, Arkansas. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, and sister who cherished everyone around her unconditionally.

Shirley was always staying busy, whether that meant creating beautiful spaces in people's homes as an interior designer, taking on projects with the PTA, or keeping things organized as her husband's secretary. That busy spirit extended even further into a love of travel, which she enjoyed greatly, from short jaunts to Branson, to far flung voyages as far as Australia. Her garden was always a beautiful oasis at her own home, where she spent countless hours nurturing her prized irises and other blooms.

Shirley was a beautiful, creative soul whose hands not only crafted beautiful treatments, bedding and draperies for the homes of countless individuals, but she also fabricated clothing and costumes for her loved ones. Her spirit of creativity also extended into the kitchen, where she was a skilled cook and baker, bringing scrumptious dishes like her homemade cornbread and corn chowder or German Chocolate Cake to the table to delight anyone who had the chance to sit there.

As a long-term member of First Baptist Church of Hot Springs, Shirley was a pillar of faith. Her belief in Christ carried her through many years of joy and loss. It was the strong foundation on which she built her home and family. Many of her fellow church members know her as a delight to be around and a shining example of fellowship.

To know Shirley was to know the pure beauty of being loved unconditionally. Her light shone brightly, uplifting everyone she encountered. We, her loved ones, recognize the immense blessing of having shared in her remarkable life.

“ A fitting tribute to a woman who was beautiful inside and out. She was always there for her family. I will miss her so much she stayed with my mom during my dad’s last days and with me when my husband had to have emergency surgery while we were visiting in Arkansas. I love and admire her deeply. Praying for her children and grandchildren as you go through this transition.

“ Shirley was a true treasure in our Connect group at First Baptist Church. She was faithful in attendance and took part in our ministry and fellowships. She remained cheerful throughout her long illness and was a witness to her faith. We admired her hat collection she wore to protect her from sun exposure. She was a beautiful soul as well as a beautiful woman. What a lovely photo you have posted. I only wish I had known her back then.
With deepest sympathy,
