“ *Becky, We will remember you during this time. Although I did not know Stephen. I knew his mother and Sara. Sara and I went to school together. We played in the band at the high school together. His and I went to Gain of Arkansas together. In fact I helped Lois get caught up in all of the work in the class. Sincerely yours

Steve had a special place here at Triumph. He always paused along his way to say hello leaving a piece of chewing gum. If I was away from my desk the gum would be on the table in front of the window. His kind and respectful way will sincerely be missed. May the Father above bless you, Mrs. Roddenberry, with comfort and peace and loving memories. As much as we will miss him here, it assuredly cannot compare to your loss. With sincere condolences.

Becky, (my sister from another mother), I cannot even find the words to say to you. Steve's stroke and passing was such an unexpected and tragic loss. Johnny and I sure will miss him on our traveling adventures. The precious memories of all the happenings will be etched in our hearts forever. Like, He always had a stick of gum to give us after going out to to eat and picking up rocks with Makayla and so many more. You know we are here for you, any time of the day or night. That will never change. We will hold you up in prayer, that the Lord will comfort you and give you peace. With all our love.
