

Susan Goltz Siegel

September 4, 1942 - June 16, 2026

Susan Goltz Siegel, 83, of Hot Springs, Arkansas, passed away on Tuesday, June 16, 2026. Born on September 4, 1942, in Hot Springs, she was the daughter of the late Lewis Goltz and Bernice Lockwood Goltz.

Susan lived a life defined by service, family, friendship, and community involvement. Susan lived in Dallas, Memphis, and Miami before returning to her roots in her hometown of Hot Springs. She graduated from Hot Springs High School, class of 1960, then attended the University of Oklahoma, where she was a proud member of the Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority. Throughout her life, she remained deeply connected to her community and to her Jewish faith.

Susan enjoyed a distinguished 39-year career in the investment industry, retiring from Morgan Stanley. Earlier in her career, she served as CEO of Susu's Shirt Shop, located within her family's business, Gene Lockwood's Sportsmart, where her creativity and entrepreneurial spirit made her custom-designed t-shirts some of the most sought-after fashions of the 1980s.

Her commitment to helping others was evident through her many civic and charitable activities. Susan served on the Levi Towers Board and was a member of Congregation House of Israel and the Temple Sisterhood. She was the first women president of the UAMS College of Medicine Parents Club. She volunteered her time delivering Christmas baskets for the Elks, supported The CALL, participated in fundraising and events for Relay for Life, the American Heart Association, the Sister City Program, and numerous other charitable organizations throughout the years.

Susan found great joy in traveling, playing bridge, and spending time with family and friends. She was known for legendary family pizza parties, her generosity, warm spirit, quick wit, and her unwavering devotion to those she loved.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her sisters, Dr. Diane Goltz and Rosalind Goltz Hudson; and her brother-in-law, Earl H. Hudson Jr.

Susan is survived by her husband, Lou Siegel; her niece, Madeline Hudson Bull; and the love of her life, Cooper Jack Bull. She is also survived by her stepchildren, Dr. Brian (Janne) Siegel, Glenda Siegel, and Leonard Siegel; grandchildren Meaghan (Murphy) Underwood, Mackenzie (Venus) Siegel, Montgomery (Destiny) Siegel, Lauren (Sean) Siegel Hirschboeck, Ben Siegel, and Maddie Siegel; great-grandchildren Warren & Harrison Underwood, Bellamy Siegel, Everly, Aspen, & Anistyn May Siegel, Keeley Siegel and brother-in-law, Glenn Siegel. She also leaves behind her cherished cats Sibo and Saki.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, June 23, 2026, at Congregation House of Israel, 300 Quapaw Avenue, Hot Springs, Arkansas. Friends wishing to pay their respects may do so on Monday, June 22, 2026, from 8:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. at Hot Springs Home.

Susan's kindness, generosity, and dedication to her family and community will be remembered by all whose lives she touched. Her legacy of compassion and service will continue to inspire those who knew and loved her.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Congregation House of Israel, Guardian Angels Cat Shelter, or the Charity of one's choice.

Pallbearers are E. Charles Jalenak, Spencer Bull, Rico Harris, Dr. Brian Siegel, Ben Siegel, Mackenzie Siegel, Montgomery Siegel, and Murphy Underwood

Honorary pallbearers are Dr. Timothy English & his nurses & staff, Dr. Fred Heinemann, Dr. Richard Braley, Steven Nguyen, and The Miami Bums,

“ I met Susan when I was working at Gene Lockwood’s SPORTSMART. Through the twelve years, while going to high school and college, we became great friends. We actually worked together at the North Little Rock location where Susan had her t-shirt business. Susan was always a breathe of fresh air every day plus the fastest walker I have ever known... she flew around the store like a racehorse.

“ I am devastated and heartbroken in the loss of my fabulous friend. We first met when she worked at AG Edward's and I ended up being her assistant but more than a great boss she was such a fabulous friend for many years. She was so kind and giving to everyone! If you were her friend she truly loved you. I felt so special with her being my friend and also my husband Steve. We love you Lou and in our thoughts and prayers!! DC and Steve Yearby
