“ This man stood up and raised his kids when men didnt take that responsibility. He raised us to love and be loyal. He gave me the foundation to stand today. He had the most amazing spirt, never once judging others and always looking for a good time. He fell in love with an amazing lady we now call mom and without a Second thought added new brothers and sisters to our family. I know his wish to us is to love and Make memories enjoying life. Please keep his memory alive with love and good times.
