

Thomas Alvin Castor

March 20, 1923 - May 23, 2014

Thomas Alvin Castor, age 91, Hot Springs Village, Arkansas peacefully passed away on Friday, May 23, 2014, surrounded by his family.

Tom was preceded in death by his first wife Janet E. (McPeck) Castor, his brother Dickie and his parents. He was born in Dayton, Ohio on March 20, 1923. Tom is survived by his loving wife, Diane Fugate Pinkerton Castor and eight children - Susan (Rick) Haubner of Washington; Beth (Bryan) Bowles of Colorado; Peggy (Dennis) Luby of Nebraska; Tom Castor Jr. of Ohio; and Timothy (Laura) Castor of Tennessee; Mark (Luba) Fugate of Texas; Missy (James) Wedel of Missouri; and Sarah (Jimmy) Lacy of Missouri and 13 grandchildren.

Tom was an officer in the Marine Corps during World War II. For many years he volunteered as a Eucharistic minister at Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church. Tom lived life to the fullest; he had a passion for golf, boating, reading and sports of all kinds. He was a gentle man, a man with integrity and soul.

A memorial services will be held on Tuesday, May 27, 2014 at 10:30 a.m. at Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church in Hot Springs Village, Arkansas. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Christian Charitable Clinic in Hot Springs, AR, or the charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

FR

“ Tom was a delightful presence and we rememeber years of encounters. God bless and comfort all of the family.

Fr Alan Rosenau, Hot Springs, Arkansas

---

Fr Alan Rosenau - May 27, 2014 at 10:19 AM

“ Secret Garden Basket was purchased for the family of Thomas Alvin Castor.

---

May 27, 2014 at 07:57 AM