“ We are so sorry that your time with your dad here on earth has come to an end. We know how much you will miss him and how your emotions will roller coaster, but I know that with Jesus Christ as his savior the joy of knowing you will be seeing him again and It being for eternity will take you through the rough days. We send all our love, hugs and prayers to each of you. We could not come to the service bc I have covid and we are in quarantine. But our hearts are with you.
