“ I just found out about Tracy I've known him my whole life! I'm so sad even though we would not see each other for a while when we did it was like we never missed any time! Tears roll down my face as I sit and reminisce. He was a kind gentle and I'm going to miss him dearly! Prayers for his family and friends! God has taken a good one from us but we will see him again one day! I'm going to miss you thank you for your friendship and all you did for me! You always helped me! Always! RIP Tracy! You will be missed!

“ When my wife Debbie and I was told about Tracy passing last night we both began crying, we loved Tracy, he had all the qualities we admire, he was quite, soft spoken, and private. He and I loved watching the horses run at Oaklawn. Tracy helped me many times with my vehicles. Although I am twice the age of Tracy we had nothing but respect for one another. Of all the years we were friends we never had one cross word between us. I got down on my knees tonight and I told God I lost a friend and I asked God to bless me to be able to make it to heaven someday so I can look up my friend Tracy.

Tracy had what you need to make it to heaven, a good heart. There is no doubt he is with our Lord and Savior.
